ALMA MATER

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., a monument indeed,
Around thy base with grateful hearts behold thy students kneel.
We bless the power that gave thee birth to help us in our need,
We'll ever strive while here on earth all loyalty to yield.

REFRAIN

With joy, with joy, dear A. and T., thy students turn from thee,
To spread thy trophies year by year from Dare to Cherokee.

II

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., the signet thou shalt be
Set by our great old commonwealth, proud boaster of the free;
She'd have the record of her worth on granite not inscribed-
Nay, let the children of her birth proclaim it by their lives.

III

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., henceforth our aim shall be,
By precepts wise and deeds more sure to bless the State through thee;
The arts of industry to wield against an idle foe,
A harvest rich from ripened fields of what thy students sow.

Chancellor Edward B. Fort

As "Keeper of the Aggie Flame," Chancellor Fort is never too busy to be involved on campus. The character and determination that lies within him continue to keep the Torch of Excellence glowing even through the darkest hours. His loyalty to North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University is an eternal quality that will never be forgotten.

A man with true character, determination, and loyalty will be a successful leader, and that man is Chancellor Edward B. Fort.

USDA Scholars were invited to attend a dinner banquet at Chancellor Fort's home.

Making sure the students' questions are being answered, the Chancellor communicates with SGA on a regular basis.

Even when there is no time to play, Chancellor Fort continues to make others smile.

The University/Industry Cluster is a group of Fortune 500 and 100-corporations that works very closely with the university in various activities. This group, A&T's closest link to the corporate world, has as its mission to initiate, develop, and expand cooperative working relationships between the university and a group of supporting industries so that our graduates will be better prepared to enter and compete in the corporate world.

The Cluster also works to supply the companies with large numbers of manpower resources. On a whole, the Cluster sees itself as a "continuously growing partnership between Industry and the university".

The Cluster members and their corporations provide scholarships and internships, recruit and hire A&T students, and provide advocacy support for the university.

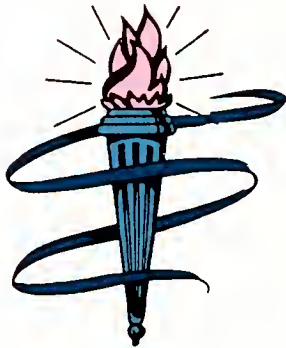

According to Chancellor Edward B. Fort, "The University/Industry Cluster is a winner, one of the best in the country."

A BEACON FOR RESEARCH

F.D. Bluford Library is the heart and basis for learning and research for students. Many students use Bluford Library to get general information on various topics. They then are able to go to their respective departments to get an explanation in greater detail. Like a heart has veins, Bluford Library has vessels which lead to laboratories in various schools in the university. Students get a more distinctive and precise understanding in research laboratories on subjects ranging from agriculture, engineering, and biological sciences. It is here at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University where dreamers do become achievers.

Okay, we know who they are, but what do they do? Do they sit behind a desk and talk on the phone all day? Well, this may be part of their job, but they are very busy people. Remember homecoming, you know, the concert, the comedy show, the step show? Well, they worked hard to bring us the acts. They also helped raise a lot of money for the fitness and wellness center during homecoming. Not only that, but they have introduced a shuttle system to help eliminate the parking situation. Thanks to SGA, we also have cable TV in the dorms, a new food service (Marcorp), etcetera, etcetera. Our Student Government Association has been a powerful liaison this year. Hats off to them for fueling the fire!

TASTE THE DIFFERENCE

We've made history! Students love the taste of A&T cafe food.

What will I have today?

EAT AT WILLIAMS CAFETERIA

College students can never seem to keep their heads out of the books — not even in the cafe.

Wait a minute. I'm not ready yet.

De-e-e-licious!

William's Cafeteria puts a smile on everyone's face. Even Birhanie's.

NC A&T Celebrates . . .

Kwanzaa is an African-American holiday that takes place during the month of December. Its primary purpose is to affirm seven Swahili Principles. Swahili is the chosen language because it is believed many African-Americans have originated from the region of Africa where Swahili is more commonly used. Kwanzaa affirms faith, economic empowerment, and education to name just a few. It is by no means a "Black Christmas" or a substitute for Christmas. Instead it is a time when African-Americans can affirm their heritage.

Kwanzaa

WILL

BLACK COLLEGES UNITED

A-mer-i-ca, hear our song. Students representing several historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs) in North Carolina (NCATSU, NCCU, Shaw, Bennett, WSSU, Livingstone) and Washington, DC (Howard University) chanted throughout the streets, "Black Colleges United Will Never Be Divided."

Several leaders spoke at the event including: Harvey Gantt, candidate for the US Senate; Rasheed-Ali Cromwell, SGA President, NCATSU; Joeletta Patrick, Miss NCATSU; Taryn Mitchell, SGA Chief-of-Staff, NCATSU. As a matter of fact, our leaders represented us VERY well. SGA President Rasheed-Ali Cromwell stressed the importance of recognizing our African heritage and understanding what role our roots play in our lives.

That day, we all realized we were on a mission, and we wanted everyone to know this as we marched on Raleigh. What was our mission? That question breeds a variety of answers — to respect, protect, and never neglect each other as brothers and sisters, to come together as one and discuss the future of HBCUs, and to preserve the fruition of historically black colleges and universities. We all know that what we experienced that day was more than talk. It was about action. We, as Aggies, promised to act.

GROUNDBREAKING FOR THE NEW

On Wednesday, September 18, 1996, students, faculty, other educators, and Greensboro politicians witnessed the groundbreaking for the new school of technology building at Price Hall. North Carolina A & T's School of Technology is one of two technology schools in the state, and is recognized nationally for producing graduates who now work in the areas of government, education and/or management.

SCHOOL OF TECHNOLOGY BUILDING

The new facility will hold several labs designed to teach electronic communications, metrology, and computer aided publishing, to name a few.

All eyes are on those who will participate in the ceremonial ground-breaking.

FEEL THE FIRE OF OUR EMPIRE

Editor's Note

This year, our ultimate goal was to unfurl the fire in every Aggie. Looking at the work that we have done, I must say that every element — pictures, designs and text — of this annual has helped us reach our goal. I must congratulate the staff, especially those of you who burned the midnight oil with me, even though it was the weekend, or if you had a test the next day. Again, I appreciate your hard work and I am very impressed with the outcome.

Sincerely,

PROJECT: YEARBOOK UNDER CONSTRUCTION

"... You cannot give energy if you're not on fire on the inside."

— Jesse Jackson, NC A&T Alumnus

Hi, Ken! You're on Candid Camera!

Oh, yes, Al. We got YOU this time!

So much to do, so little time.

Editor at Work

This is what Al likes best about being a photographer . . . No doubt!

Hello, Aggies. We hope you don't mind if we interrupt for a sec. Well, how are you doing? We've been very busy this year; don't let the pictures fool you. Our average week goes a little something like this — our photographers take dozens of pictures, our layout artists lay out about ten or twelve pages of pictures, copywriters create copy for them, and voila — we're through! Then, we rest for a day, and get back to work the next week.

Putting the yearbook together is HARD WORK. Three hundred and twenty pages of Aggie Pride is what we strive for. We wouldn't dream of settling for less. All of this, however, is almost nothing compared to an ever harder job — creating a theme for the book.

This year, we decided to capture the fire inside of the Aggie. Every spark, every glow, every burst of energy caught our interest, and every time we were lucky enough to catch you in that moment, we did. After looking at the year in review, we decided that . . .

Aggies are, without a doubt, ready for the world. We possess a burst of energy fueled by a sense of pride and a thirst for knowledge. Our fiery spirit shines through us in whatever we do. Anyone in our presence or in our territory should feel the heat. We're on fire inside, and we're waiting to do more than exhale. From our feverish minds to our boiling feet, we're right on time and we're ready to compete. Watch out world — HERE WE COME!!!!

ALL OF THIS WORK, AND

"Just one more class. I only need three hours to graduate." Last summer, Corbett Gym was swarming with frustrated students. Some were paying bills, some were getting parking stickers, and others were just trying to get into a class. It may sound easy, especially if you're on the outside looking in, but it can be a real headache. Just think — all of this work, just to get into a class!

SCHOOL HASN'T EVEN STARTED YET!

This is only the fifth time I've been in this line. Of course I'll be patient with you.

August 22, 1996. Students are rushing back and forth across the gym. Everyone's in a frenzy — students, parents, and administrators. All they need is a break. The only question is When? Where? How?

CAREER DAY: CREATING YOUR FUTURE

Many students take advantage of career day.

This is one opportunity for Aggies to apply for an interview, and submit their résumé to prospective employers.

Companies also solicit students by presenting prototypes, so prospective employees can get a better understanding of exactly what the company produces.

Technology: A Career Odyssey

*Technology above and beyond
Now it's time to use the magnetic audiotape.*

*Technology is rapidly changing
And we are steadily rearranging.
This new technology will allow students
To reach for the stars, or even visit Mars.*

*It's time we pick up the pace
And join the worldly race.*

*OCS is the epitome of innovation
And we had lots of motivation.*

*We did some pioneering,
As well as some re-engineering.*

*As a result, OCS can compete
Without a defeat.*

*So come and take a flight on the OCS Odyssey
It will accommodate any prodigy.*

CAMPUS SAFETY CONFERENCE

A panel of community leaders give their perspectives of how to solve various crime problems, and how to prevent crime from happening.

Chancellor Edward B. Fort was also in attendance for the conference.

Ms. Morgan, Barbee Hall Director, and others attend the campus safety luncheon that followed morning workshops.

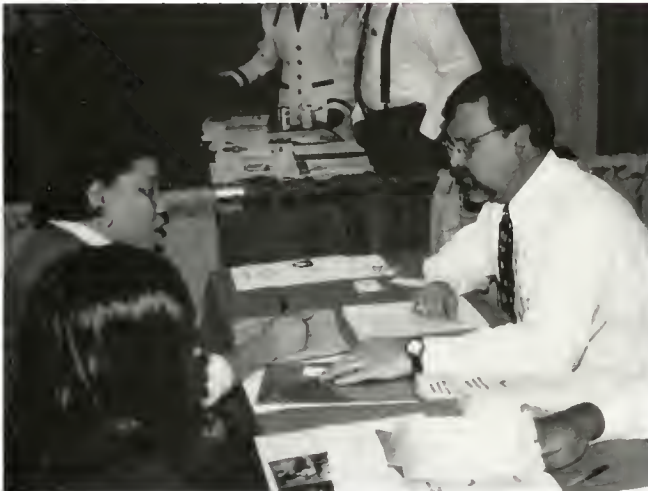

Also in attendance were residence hall officers.

Jacquelyn H. Barrett, sheriff of Fulton county in Georgia, was the keynote speaker at the conference luncheon.

Career Day for Teachers . . .

A career fair for educators and prospective teachers was held this year in Corbett Sports Center. Recruiters came from Greensboro and as far away as New York State seeking out fresh, eager, energetic role models to teach tomorrow's leaders. Many A&T students flocked over to Corbett with resu-més in one hand and a pen in the other. Many students even had the opportunity to apply on site.

KNOW OUR BRI TROUBLED

Everything we need to know we learned in kindergarten. But everything we want to know we learn at A&T. In order to be on top of things, we have to study 24-7, basically. Cracking those books is not going to do it, my friends. Not here. You gotta be BURIED IN THOSE BOOKS. There's just no other way.

LEDGE: DGE OVER WATERS

And of course, you MUST register. There's no way around that one.

HELP ME!!! I WANT TO GO TO GRAD SCHOOL!

Clemson University offers several graduate study programs, in Accounting, English, History, and Psychology, to name a few.

Oh, I don't know about all that now.

Law? Education? Medicine? Duke, ECU, LUVA, or simply the hottest, NCA&TSU? Most of us want to pursue graduate study. We're just not sure where yet. Some of us don't really know what we specifically want a degree in either. That's one of the reasons we have Graduate School Day — so that we can familiarize ourselves with all of the options. No one can make us go to grad school, but it's definitely something to think about.

At the University of Maryland at College Park, everyone matters.

So, does Tanisha want to go to Chapel Hill?

I'm not exactly sure if I want to go or not.

Nice to meet you.

LEARNING BY DOING

Everybody uses the computer lab! Both professors and students rush for the labs in Merrick, Mar-teena, or Bluford to make the last few changes on that special presentation. Whether it be a report or spreadsheet, the computer just gives it that extraordinary professional finish.

Academic excellence is one of the many ideals we strive for at North Carolina A & T State University. Whether we are in the computer lab, in one of our fine schools, or in the Student Union, we are always learning. Books are very useful, but involvement is a must!

Academic Excellence is a Must!

At North Carolina A & T, students and faculty go hand in hand. One is always leaning on the other, listening to the other, and learning from the other.

They may look like they're just chillin', but these guys are planning to hit the books!

Going to class everyday, you guys, will make you healthy, wealthy, and wise.

everything we need to know is not in the books. For example, most of us probably know that in 1492 Columbus sailed the ocean blue. But how many of us know that Blacks were responsible for the South's political, social, and economic development? The same goes for our Economic textbooks. We learn a great deal about businesses, and what goes on inside them. We learn how they are started and how they profit. But how much do we know about black businesses? Not enough. That's why we were so glad to have black vendors on campus, to tell us more about their businesses. No matter what we do or where we go on campus, we always end up LEARNING!

There's nothing wrong with a little rest after a long days work.

Dr. Haynie is the first African American woman to earn a Ph.D. in Chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). She was reared in Baltimore, Maryland and she was educated in the Baltimore City Schools. She received her BA in Biochemistry from the University of Pennsylvania.

GLOBAL AGGIES

These Global Aggies travelled overseas to the lovely cities of Paris, France and San Jose, Costa Rica. There, the students tested and strengthened their international communication skills. They also learned more about the cities than textbooks could ever tell them. The students enjoyed trying new foods and visiting "much talked about" sights such as Le Tour Eiffel in Paris, France.

GRADUATION: THE MOMENT

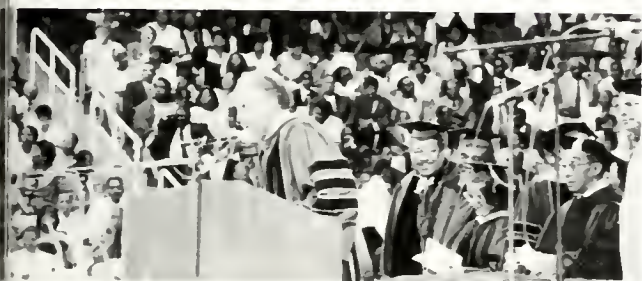

Chancellor Fort wishes much success to the Class of '96.

Salute to the Golden Grads.

WE ARE ALL WAITING FOR

Education does not end in the afternoon; it does not end in the spring; it does not end until you do. — M. Dale Baughman

Congratulations to the Class of '96.

Both students and administrators strive for excellence in what we do. Determination, perseverance, and dreaming are key to achieving. Once again, only the Aggie survives.

Even through the fire, we were able to strive forward with the intentions to be better than before. Our determination has committed us as Aggies to accept, conquer, and defeat a challenge; and it's the same determination that explains why the Doors of Opportunity remain open.

This year, the Ayantee staff met one of its biggest challenges. We were asked to bring you, the Aggies of North Carolina A&T State University, the fever, the fervor, the FIRE of our homecoming celebration. When we took the offer, we had no idea what would be expected of us. We knew that homecoming was going to be the bomb, but it was not only the bomb. It was droppin' more bombz — no warnings! It started on Monday night, as just a stick of dynamite, and by Saturday night, it was blowin' roofs. Once again, A&T had it goin' on! It was just too hot for us to handle, though, so all we have are these photos. Sorry, but we don't have any music from the Marching Aggie Machine or the Fugees, but we did our best. If you weren't there, well, just look at the photos long enough and maybe, just maybe, you will be able to feel the magic. If you WERE there, then — Remember when??!!

Taiwan Barksdale, Miss North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University 1995-1996, passed down the crown to Miss Patrick, who is a native of Greensboro, North Carolina.

This was a special night for Joeletta, and everyone aimed to make it a very memorable one for her. Several tributes were presented to Joeletta, including the mighty sounds of Fourtress and the NCA&TSU Gospel Choir.

Joeletta's performance left a lasting impression on the audience. The crowd sat mesmerized by her poise, grace, and her soliloquy entitled, "The Spirit of Aggie Pride: Reality, or just a Vision?"

All in all, it was a night to remember.

AGGIE PRIDE!!!

An Evening of Sheer Elegance and Sophistication

Mr. Duane Nash is happy to announce Miss SUAB 1996-1997, Toy Latarsha Parker.

The Coronation of Miss SUAB 1996-97
Miss Toy Latarsha Parker
Memorial Student Union Ballroom
North Carolina A&T State University

Introducing . . . Miss Toy Latarsha Parker,

The expression is definitely louder than words for Candace Drummond, Shakia Gee, Rekyiah Muhammad, and Angela Wills.

Ms. Rashid, the Advisor of the Student Union Advisory Board, congratulates Miss SUAB during the ceremony.

Miss Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Teriyaki C. Garner
Miss Zeta Phi Beta 1996-1997

Miss Zeta Phi Beta is all smiles while being escorted by Mr. James Raleigh.

Miss Zeta Phi Beta's Court.

Miss Zeta Phi Beta 1995-1996
takes her last walk before she crowns Miss Zeta Phi Beta 1996-1997.

IF YOU CAN'T STAND THE HEAT,

AGGIES WILDCATS

Our boys showed out this time. They did, they really did! As for those wildcats, oh well, like moths to a flame, burned by the fire, they got beat down, and the Aggies soared higher.

GENERATION

RED HOT SUMMER

Pops may have just about had

Hay, Karla's got her groove back!

The cafe's not open, but we're still getting our grub on.

Is moving in the worst part of the school year or what?

Yeah, everything's

IN AGGIELAND

What you see is what you get.

enough for one day.

Pizza! Pizza!

ood on this scene.

A Tribe Called Quest visits the Aggies.

Grab your campus paks with soap, deodorant, after-shave — the whole nine!

ONCE AGAIN, AGGIES

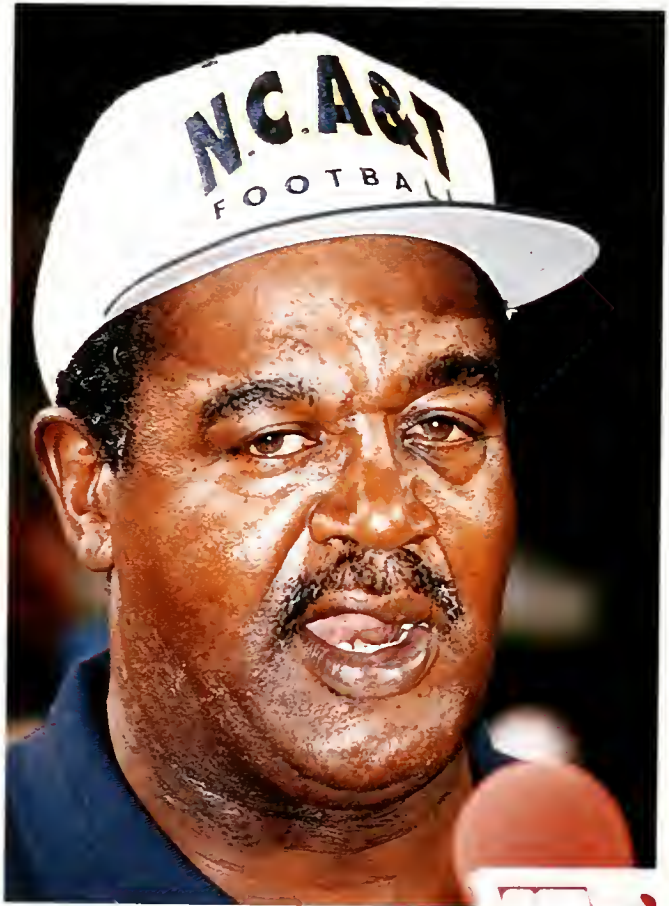

Once more, the Aggies have proven to be top dawgs on the field. They ripped into the Eagles, bringing yet another victory home to Greensboro, N.C. Eagles, we'll tell you once more, "You gotta move over."

REIGN SUPREME

AGGIE — EAGLE CLASSIC '96

AGGIES 38
EAGLES 31

ENJOYING ALL THAT

Campus life is great! Just imagine, you get to go to class, assemble with your leaders in the ballroom, chill out with your friends at the snack bar, play cards with the guys, cook out on the lawn, and even hang out at the Bowl for a Greek stepshow. What's even better is it's all happening in your own backyard! What more could you ask for?

A&T HAS TO OFFER

Just let us know when you're ready.

She said what????

NCA & T VS NCCU
LADY AGGIES 63
LADY EAGLES 35

No, girlfriend. You just THINK you've got me concerned.

All right, ya'll. Let's do this!

Black girls can jump!

Lady Aggies shut out the Eagles.

I want you!

Time out for the Aggies.

REMEMBER

No! It's just an extra-large band-aid.

What do you do when you're studying with someone and neither of you has the answer?

Listenin' to my jams now, so I'll rap with y later.

WHEN???!!!

What are you talking about girl?!

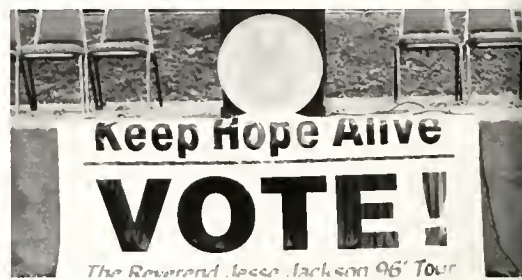

I'm gettin' my grub on man! Do you mind?!

Wait a minute . . . this is going in the year-book??!!

Say what?!

Keep Hope Alive! Vote! 1996 . . . Election Year . . . Harvey Gantt. Does it ring a bell yet? Voting was a primary concern in Aggieland during '96. SGA members, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc. are just a few of the organizations that encouraged Aggies to keep hope alive by voting. NCA&T alumnus and former presidential candidate, Jesse Jackson also encouraged Aggies to vote.

"Affirmative action is a majority issue, not a minority issue."

The Rev. Jesse Jackson spoke to the Aggies in Williams Cafeteria during the month of October about the "power in registered voters". Rev. Jackson mentioned several excellent points, and offered words of wisdom that will never be forgotten. Jackson said, "Hands that once picked tobacco, picked cotton, can now pick a US Senator". He also said, that, Contrary to popular belief, most poor people are not on welfare, they work EVERYDAY."

"The new America should not be about black and white, but wrong and right."

TC, Rev. Jackson, SGA President Cromwell, US Rep. Watt, Miss A&T

My Heroes

My heroes are many,
Some of which you may have no clue,
Marcus Garvey and Medgar Evers — Just to name a few,
Striving for freedom for generations to come,
My heroes, you may have heard of some,
Martin Luther King and Rosa Parks,
The ring of their names,
The sound of their voices,
Lifted up — That we may have choices,
Malcolm X and Frederick Douglass,
These heroes are our heroes,
None should be forgotten,
For without them — What would you be?
Uneducated — sitting under a tree,
Resting from your day of pickin'
Smackin' on fried chicken,
My heroes preached, stood tall and fought for our freedom,
Honor them with an education,
Trust in God and all,
Don't let my heroes be high up on your shelf,
Covered with dust — only used for reports,
Put my heroes down deep inside,
Hold your head up — Show some pride,
Don't let their purpose fall apart,
Put them deep inside your heart, — For my heroes are your heroes too!

— Charles G. "White Lightning" — 2nd more French major

SEVENTIES' COFFEE HOUSE

The trends of the seventies are rapidly making their way into the nineties. The clothing, music, and hair of the seventies are just a few of the fashions being imitated by nineties' girls and guys. Fluorescent colors, mini skirts, and afros are back on the fashion list, and are neck to neck with designers such as Calvin Klein, Nautica, Guess, and Girbaud.

Hey, Mr. DJ.

They promised us the next dance.

This hairstyle, very popular in the '70s is also worn by sistas now.

He likes the way you work it.

These superfly brothers are about to go get their mac on.

It doesn't always take two.

At the coffee house, everyone's an old friend.

Mr. Cool and his Gang

mon ride it! The Soouul rain!!!

Fly Females with Fashion Sense

Aquaris Moore jokes with Keisha about her man-to-be.

It's Friday nite. And you're home along — AGAIN! It's just you, the remote, and a big bag of Pop Secret. And all of you are just sitting there staring at one another. Then you realize it's time for you to get a date. Go out. Have fun. It's time for you to play . . .

Two's company

SINGLED OUT!

Wait a minute. Can't you see I'm eating??!!

Softly Styled
or Wet 'n'
Wild?

Ooh girlz! Look at all of these SINGLE men!

"Well, they say good things come in small packages. I think I prefer the 'Li'l Lump.'"

'Someday my prince will come.'

Aw, man. She trippin', she just trippin'!

You know, I hate to eat and run, but that's what I'm about to do.

SAY "AGGIE"

Make sure you get my good side.

I suggest you get your own.

I wonder if it's too late to drop?

Alright, I got another one I want you to try.

Okay, one picture and I'm going to class.

Girl it's Friday, I just aced my test, so I'm 'bout to be out.

Proud to be Aggie!

Everybody loves being an Aggie — EVERYBODY!

Proud to be part of the family.

Aggie Pride is Alive.

Aggie + Pride \Rightarrow Aggie Smiles

Peace, Love, and Aggiehood.

ONCE UPON A TIME

There was a place where we used to chill

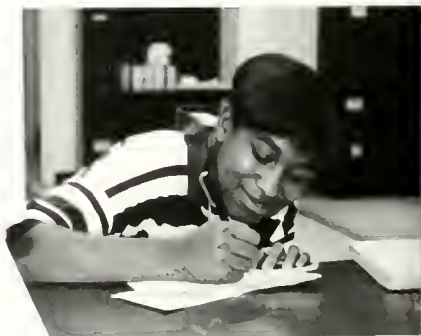

Where we had that Aggie fever

Whether we were alone

Whether we were at work

Or with friends

IN NINETY-SIX

that always burned within us

and warmed our souls

wherever we went.

Or at play

Our fun NEVER stopped

And our energy, like the morning sun, radiated our territory.

END.

THE HOMEPLACE

When I find the path this way
there is only a faint light
in the dim woods
I find the path
in the dim woods
and there is no one there to witness my presence.

Meanwhile the wind
rises through the branches —
but soon reaches groundfall.
A faint smell of honeysuckle sustains itself on the air
while quail rove the slope-weeds.
My eyes will not let go.

And I think of my great-grandfather who once walked these woods through daylight.
The path he knew since boyhood.
And I am glad for this homeplace —
here I can wish to grow old and stand without words in the heart of the world
as I stand here.

I can hear a dog barking
somewhere in the far distance here where the voices of farm life do not speak, their voices huddling into themselves, a brotherhood of saints.
We are this fresh green world which cradles everything to itself.

The background of the page is a dark, swirling marbled pattern. A large, white, irregularly shaped paper cutout is placed over the center of the page, creating a stark contrast with the dark background. The text is printed on this white cutout.

Untitled

There ain't but one good thing about the South:
The rich brown soil, the dew-filled grass, the monstrous old oaks,
Ripe, red tomatoes and watermelons in the summer.
Boys and girls running back and forth,
Toting apples, pears, peaches, and plums,
Picked from the fruit trees in grandma's back yard,
Where they've frolicked all summer long,
Rushing to get back "home."

To Brooklyn,

To Philly,

To Boston,

To see their friends,

And tell them of their horseback rides,

And midnight dips in the lake.

Yet reluctant,

To go back to

The smoke-filled air that blackens the breath of babes,

And the sirens, that interrupt sleep and late-night shows.

So different from the Carolinas

The Carolinas, so far away from "home."

There ain't but one good thing about the South.

MISS BLACK NORTH CAROLINA SCHOLARSHIP PAGEANT

North Carolina A&T was proud to host the Miss Black North Carolina Scholarship Pageant this year. Four Aggies participated in the event; each of them did very well. The pageant presented young, black, college women striving to become successful career women. This pageant is held to recognize and reward these young women who will not only make a difference in their careers, but in their communities as well.

She was crowned during Pro-Line Hair Product's two-hour televised presentation of the 1996 Miss Collegiate African-American Pageant, which was hosted by celebrity stars Kristoff St. John and Jasmine Guy. MCAAP was taped on June 22nd at NBC Studios, Burbank, CA. (Photo by Andre Murray).

BLACK POLITICIANS IN ACTION

As November 5, 1996 approaches, politicians and voters prepare for election day through campaigns, debates, and other political forums. Harvey Gantt, a candidate for the 1996 U.S. Senate, asked for political support from the Aggies during his campaign. Gantt expressed his views on funding for education as the economic welfare of the community in general. SGA President Rasheed-Ali Cromwell and Representative Alma Adams also spoke at the event.

HALEY VISITS THE AGGIES

The Aggies were very honored to have Lydia Haley daughter of Alex Haley, on our campus.

GRANT ON "THE BEST KIND OF LOVING"

Dr. Gwendolyn Goldsby Grant, author of The Best Kind of Loving, educates the Aggies on how to take better care of our bodies and ourselves. Dr. Grant discussed the major health problems of women today, and instructed us on how women can better cope physically and mentally in a changing society. Dr. Grant also explained how spirituality and faith had an effect on the healing of our bodies. After the presentation, she signed and sold books.

Dr. Grant is an advice columnist for Essence magazine. She has also hosted a mental health radio talk show. She has appeared on several televised talk shows including, Montel Williams, Rolanda, Jenny Jones, and Oprah.

BLACK INVENTORS: THE BEST KEPT SECRET

"Betcha can't eat just one!" Does this sound familiar? Thanks to Hiram Thomas, a black inventor, we can enjoy the crunch of potato chips.

Ajax, peanut butter, and the egg beater were all created by a black inventor. The average housewife would be gracious to this "lifesaver."

Thank you, Madame! Madame C.J. Walker, an African-American woman, invented the straightening comb. Used widely in beauty salons and homes today, it is surely a prized possession.

Many of us are familiar with the supersoaker. How many of us are familiar with the fact that it owes its popularity to this black inventor?

Garrett Morgan invented the stoplight. What a relief!

AGGIES SUPPORT BLACK BUSINESSES

Black vendors set up their products in the Student Union ballroom to participate in Vendor Village. At this event, students bought T-shirts, tapes, and perfume from black vendors and sported them on campus. This event encouraged the booming of black businesses and educated students on the importance of supporting them. Much luck to black businesses in the future!

Phenomenal, Phenomenal Women

What kind of woman is she? Dynamic, energetic, intelligent, elegant. Aggie women come in all shapes and sizes; they have their own personalities — whether they be quiet, outgoing, collected, or dramatic. However, they represent as one. The fellas say they like Aggie women because of their charm, enthusiasm, and wit. We must all agree — there's nothing like that phenomenal Aggie woman. Look high and low, near or far, you're just never gonna get it, never gonna get it!

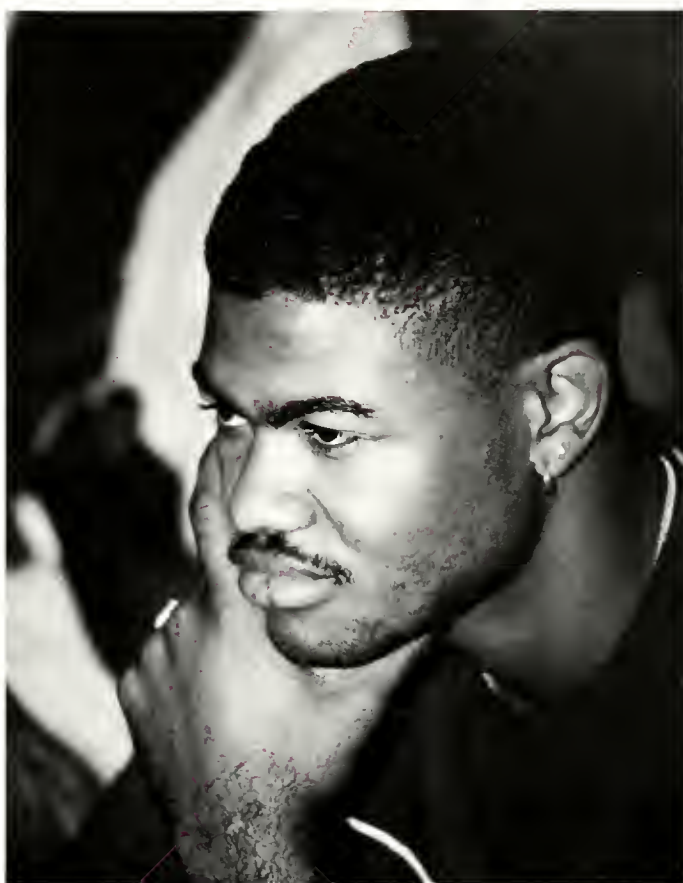

SO PROUD OF

Know what we like most about our men?
EVERYTHING! From their inquiring minds to their 'stand their ground' feet, Aggie men are much respected for their style, stamina, and stupendous abilities. To our Aggie men; you are one of a kind. We love you!

KEEP UP THE GOOD LOOKS!

A & T CELEBRATES FOUNDER'S DAY

In the fall of '96, North Carolina A & T held its annual Founder's Day Program. Everyone was encouraged to attend the event. SGA President Rasheed-Ali Cromwell, Miss A & T Joeletta Patrick, and Chancellor Edward B. Fort greeted the audience with Aggie Pride. The Marching Aggie Machine also participated in the ceremony, sharing their magical tunes which caused a sudden rippling in the waters of our souls. All who attended were touched by the music, as well as the mention of the memoirs that we have on campus — such as our classroom buildings and our residence halls — of our heroes, who paved the way for us at A & T. In essence, this year's fall convocation reminded us of the strength and perseverance one needs to be a winner at this prestigious institution, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University: Where Dreamers Become Achievers.

RECEPTION HONORING

Dr. Beverly Malone

On August 18, 1996 North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University honored Dr. Beverly Malone as she began a new chapter in her life as President of the American Nurses Association. Dr. Malone, former professor and Dean of A&T's School of Nursing, has served as Second Vice President of the American Nurses Association for two years. She has also been a member of and chaired numerous committees within the association.

Locally, Dr. Malone has served on the Governor's Task Force concerning the Nursing Shortage, as Commissioner of North Carolina Commission on Health Services, as Vice Chair of Moses Cone Health Systems Board of Trustees, and on several other councils and boards in the state of North Carolina.

All faculty, staff, and students at A&T wish Dr. Malone the best of luck with her new endeavors as she sets the world afire.

Blending Academics and Athletics ...

On Saturday, November 16, Andre Taylor was one of ten athletes featured as the Burger King Scholar Athlete of the Week. The scholarship award of $10,000.00 was established at the university in Andre's name for his academic and athletic performances. For three consecutive semesters Andre maintained a 4.0 grade point average. He also fulfilled the need for a center position on the Aggie football team. Andre relies on grade point average to be a determining factor in his career plans. He is already an entrepreneur. He is owner and operator of A.D. Tees of Chapel Hill. He designs, prints, and markets tee shirts for various occasions. Additionally Andre has been inducted into the Golden Key National Honor Society where he was also the recipient of yet another scholarship. NCA&T congratulates Mr. Andre D. Taylor on his success as an athlete and scholar.

Congratulations are in order to Miss Mekeisha Caulk. Miss Caulk is a graduating nursing student and Army ROTC Cadet. She is the first runner up for the Nursing in Excellence Award. Pictured is LTC Weeks; Army ROTC, Mekeisha Caulk, and Dr. Janice Brewington; interim dean for the school of nursing.

EIGHT FORMER NCA&TSU ATHLETES PICKED

Vinson Miller, of Mt. Laurel, N.J., was a four-year starter for the NCA&TSU basketball team. Miller played in the CIAA Tournaments and NCAA Division II Finals. From 1962 to 1969, Miller served as head scout and statistics recorder for the Philadelphia Warriors.

Rodney James, of Greensboro, N.C., served on NCA&TSU's wrestling team, earning the title of conference Wrestler of the Year for three years. James was recognized by the NCAA Division as the Eastern Regional runner-up in 1977. He was "Wrestler of the Year" in 1975, 1976, and 1977.

Donald B. Young, of Winston-Salem, N.C., was both a basketball and baseball player at NCA&T. He played on the varsity basketball team for three years and served as captain during his senior year. In 1958, he joined the Negro League Baseball team and played with them for seven years. Young also played for the Chicago Cubs Minor League and the Harlem Magicians, a basketball team.

Ira Snell, Jr., of Canton, Ohio, was recognized as one of the best pass receivers in the CIAA. He was a member of the 1950 CIAA Conference Championship team and the 1951 squad that were recognized as National Black Champions.

FOR A & T SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Harold R. Carrillo, of East Hanover, New Jersey, was honored for his outstanding performance as a football player. Carrillo played in 1951-1953 and 1958-1960. He was also a member of the 1951 Championship Team. Carrillo is now owner and senior vice president of State Wide Information Service in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Jesse W. Everett, of Laurinburg, NC, joined the A & T football team in 1951, and was a member of that National Championship team. In 1952, Everett received an Honorable mention for the All-CIAA team. In 1953-55, he was drafted into the military. He also shone on the field there; in 1954, he was a member of the Eastern Conference USAREAU Championship team, and later became a member of the All-Germany team. He returned to A & T in 1955, and served as captain of the team. His football career ended in 1957.

Jerry Powell, of Whitakers, NC, is recognized as one of our best play making guards. Powell lettered four years and served as co-captain of the team in 1964. This 1964 team was the one that won the CIAA Tournament and finished third at the NCAA tournament in Evansville, Indiana. Powell is now an assistant coach for the Atlantic Hawks.

Harold O. Hair, Jr., of Jacksonville, Florida, was recognized for his outstanding performance on the baseball team. Hair joined the team as a walk on, and became the 1st string third baseman on a team that ended up winning four consecutive Championships. Hair was known for his .300 batting record and was named captain of the 1953 championship team.

SUPERBOWL XXXI

BORIS YELTSIN

It was late in the third quarter when Desmond Howard of the Green Bay Packers returned his first kickoff for a touchdown as a pro. And it was a whopper — a 100-yard return for the longest kickoff return in Super Bowl history. The Packers went on to beat the New England Patriots 35-21 in Super Bowl XXXI.

Boris Yeltsin was re-elected President of Russia and pledged to continue the reforms he began five years ago. However, the 65 year old president began immediately to show the signs of severe heart problems. It was announced that he had at least two heart attacks in the past two years and open-heart surgery was considered the only solution to his life-threatening disease.

ISRAELI-PALESTINIAN CONFLICT

FUGEES

The Fugees hit the charts with their best-selling album "The Score". One critic said: "the Fugees sound, style, and spirit, without question, goes a long way to dispel the stereotypical approach to making modern urban melodies".

Peace in the Middle East remained unstable as the fall semester began. A crisis erupted after Israel opened a new exit in a tunnel alongside a plateau, raising suspicions among Muslims that the Israelis were seeking to change the delicate religious balance in Jerusalem's Old City. The incident proved to be the breaking point in mounting Palestinian frustrations with the lack of movement in carrying out the peace accords. Demonstrations followed where nearly 100 people were killed. Then emergency meetings were arranged by President Clinton in Washington between Benjamin Netanyahu and Yasir Arafat.

William Jefferson Clinton began his second term in January 1997 as the 42nd President of the United States. He placed his left hand on a family bible held by his wife, Hillary, and took the 35-word oath of office administered by Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist, who wished him "Good Luck."

TWA FLIGHT 800 CRASH SITE

Months after TWA Flight 800 exploded in midair in the summer of 1996, investigators were still searching for a cause. The Boeing 747 jumbo jet plunged into the Atlantic Ocean off the coast of Long Island, N.Y., just minutes after taking off from Kennedy Airport for Paris. All 230 people on board were killed. The theories ranged from a mechanical failure to a bomb, from an exploded fuel tank to a missile.

MARIAH CAREY

Mariah Carey was only a teen when a Columbia record executive heard her demo tape and signed her up. Her first album soared to the No. 2 spot and the rest is history. It's been solid gold ever since. When Mariah performs, her voice takes command over the large band and battalion of background singers. Her latest album "Daydream" hit the No. 1 position on the charts.

Benjamin Netanyahu, leader of the Likud political party, was elected Prime Minister of Israel. He declared that his government would honor the existing agreements on peace and security issues and would continue to negotiate toward a final peace agreement in the Middle East.

Monica may be young, but she knows about attitude. She says she is confident, intelligent, self-possessed, and self-assured. "Miss Thang is her debut hit with Roudy Records. The critics say "It's a potent, persuasive, and personal statement from a young woman who's heading up the new breed of R&B singers. She was born and raised in Atlanta and began singing in her local church choir. She quickly rose from the chorus to a soloist, and then to the top of the charts

HONG KONG

Hong Kong was a British colony on the brink of great change in 1997. Great Britain's lease on Hong Kong was set to expire on July 1, 1997 and the Chinese were poised to reclaim the island. After 100 years of British rule, British administration and jurisdiction over Hong Kong will end and it will become a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China.

Ross Perot, who four years earlier won more votes than any other independent Presidential candidate in 80 years, launched a campaign as the 1996 nominee of the Reform Party. The 66 year old Texas billionaire was a less formidable figure than he was in 1994, but a very vocal candidate nevertheless. Lacing his speeches with inspirational anecdotes from American history and his own life, Perot lambasted budget deficits and big government.

Nikki Giovanni,

Woman Extraordinaire

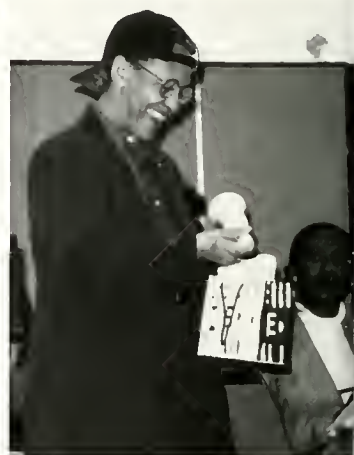

Born in Knoxville, Tennessee, as Yolande Cornelia Giovanni, Jr., Nikki Giovanni has become one of the most famous literary figures in our country. She was a prominent figure in the Black Arts movement and has soared even higher since then. She has appeared on talk shows, received honorary degrees, and produced collections of love poems and verses for children. Her books of poetry and essay, include Black Feeling (1967), Black Judgment (1968), Re: Creation (1970), and My House (1972). Black Feeling, Black Judgment, and Re: Creation were instant hits in the '70's. Ms. Giovanni continues to write and currently teaches writing, poetry, and literature at Virginia Tech.

Nikki-Rosa

childhood remembrances are always a drag if you're Black you always remember things like living in Woodlawn
with no inside toilet and if you become famous or something they never talk about how happy you were to have your mother all to yourself and how good the water felt when you got your bath from one of those big tubs that folk in Chicago barbecue in and somehow when you talk about home it never gets across how much you understood their feelings
as the whole family attended meetings about Hollydale and even though you remember your biographers never understand your father's pain as he sells his stock and another dream goes and though you're poor it isn't poverty that concerns you
and though they fought a lot it isn't your father's drinking that makes any difference but only that everybody is together and you and your sister have happy birthdays and very good christmasses
and I really hope no white person ever has cause to write about me because they'll never understand Black love is Black wealth and they'll probably talk about my hard childhood and never understand that all the while I was quite happy

— Nikki Giovanni (1968)

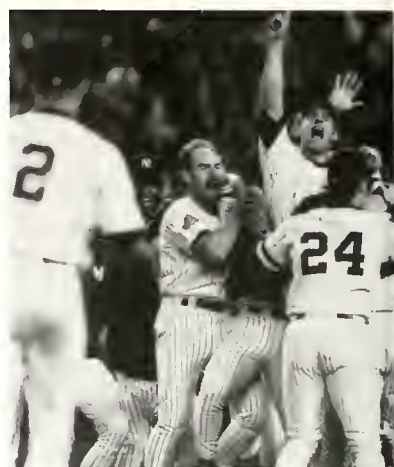

CALL ME BLACK WOMAN

Call Me Black Woman is a dramatic celebration of African-American Women featuring Ms. Priscilla Hancock Cooper. This year NCA&T was added to her outstanding list of performance highlights. Priscilla Cooper's one woman show is a collection of her own poetry. She has taken this show on the road to many colleges and universities throughout the region.

Ms. Cooper is a native of Louisville, Kentucky but is presently residing in Birmingham, Alabama. She has been an administrator and communication faculty member of the University of Montevallo in Alabama and the University of Louisville. She is a graduate of American University in Washington, DC and Lincoln University in Missouri where she began performing.

The New York Yankees brought a world championship back to the Bronx by edging the defending champion Atlanta Braves 3-2 in Game 6 of the World Series. This was the first championship for the Yankees since 1978, and their 23rd overall.

The Macarena hit all the charts — from Latin to Pop — and enlivened dance floors all over the world. The song was first released three years ago and it became a big hit in Spain. Then someone had the bright idea to market the song internationally. Numerous Macarena versions have added variations to the basic moves of the dance, which requires a 360-degree turn to be completed in four jumps to the right.

Celine Dion had the impossible good fortune of taking two movie songs — “Beauty and the Beast” and “Because You Loved Me” (from Up Close and Personal) and took them to the top of the charts. The Canadian performer has a dynamic voice that raises even the most modest material to a level of loveliness. Her latest release, “Falling Into You” was a runaway hit.

Tracey Chapman was back on the charts with her latest album "New Beginning". As one critic wrote: "one thing Tracey Chapman has inevitably gained over the years is polish. This new album is simply and impeccably orchestrated, tightly and urbanely played. The songs are adorned with soft jazz accompaniments."

A deadly explosion disrupted the Olympic Games. Just as the games were turning Atlanta into a giddy metropolis overflowing with tourists, a black-powered pipe bomb packed with nails exploded in the packed Centennial Olympic Park. One person died instantly and another person died of a heart attack. More than one hundred people were injured and, as of yet no one has been charged with the crime.

For the first time in its history, the House of Representatives voted to reprimand and fine its speaker for bringing discredit on the House. The House Ethics Committee ruled that House Speaker Newt Gingrich was involved in using tax-exempt foundation money for his political ends.

MICHAEL JOHNSON

Olympic gold medal winner Michael Johnson has what track coaches call speed, endurance — the ability to carry top speed. He proved he had endurance-plus. Johnson won an unprecedented double win in the Summer Olympics in Atlanta. He won the 200 and 400 meter race. He was also the overwhelming favorite in the 200, but a case of food poisoning weakened him and he failed to qualify for the final.

DARIUS RUCKER,
HOOTIE & THE BLOWFISH

Hootie and the Blowfish was once described as a well-meaning four-piece band from South Carolina who made a pleasant but otherwise unremarkable album that should have sold maybe a million copies and instead sold more than 13 million. For their next act, Hootie and the group produced "Fairweather Johnson," and if only half of the people who brought "Cracked Rear View" buy this one, the group will have a multi-million seller, again.

1996 REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Bob Dole retired after 35 years in Congress to devote himself full time to running for President. At the age of 73, the former senator from Kansas would be the oldest person elected to a first term as President. As his running mate he picked Jack Kemp, an active Republican and former cabinet member. Dole and Kemp promised to give President Clinton a "run for his money". They attacked the president's character and ethics while promoting the Republican 15 percent tax cut.

For the first time since the 1993 Gulf war, the American military took action against Iraq and its leader, Saddam Hussein. Iraq sent its troops into the Kurdish enclave in northern Iraq in retaliation the United States launched air attacks against Hussein's southern air defenses. Hussein has abused his people since the ruling Baath assumed power nearly 30 years ago, and since the end of the Gulf War he has continued to assassinate his political enemies.

President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore maintained a strong and consistent lead in the polls during their campaign for four more years in the White House. The Democratic team campaigned on a "four more years" platform that featured a strong economy and a lower crime rate. During his first term, Clinton formed a very close partnership with Gore, who served as confidant and adviser.

The seven members of the U.S. women's gymnastic team won the unlikely of the gold medals in the unlikely of fashions. Team member Kerri Strug made the clinching vault on a bad ankle, and became an Olympic heroine the instant she landed. Her coach, Bela Karolyi, carried her to the stand to be awarded the medal.

McKinley A. DeShield, Jr.

Dr. McKinley A. DeShield, Jr. died on Feb. 9, 1997, at the Vencor Hospital in Greensboro, NC.

He was born in Monrovia, Liberia, West Africa, on Oct. 21, 1938. A 1956 graduate of the College of West Africa (High School) in Liberia, he received the B.S. degree in agronomy from N.C. A&T State University in 1960, cum laude. He received the M.S. degree in agronomy and plant physiology from Cornell University in New York in 1962. He then received the Ph.D. degree in horticulture from Nottingham University in England in 1967.

Returning to Liberia, Dr. DeShield served as Dean of College of Agriculture and Forestry at the University of Liberia until 1980, when he left for the United States as a result of a military take-over of the government. He resided in Greensboro, and was employed as Professor of Agronomy at N.C. A&T State University until his death.

He was married to Earlene Wordsworth, and was the caring father of six children. He was a man of many achievements: scientific researcher, educator, author, musician, and a world class table tennis champion.

"SOME FLAMES NEVER DIE"

This song is dedicated to Craig Love Stephens (1969-1993), my best friend, my first love.

Let it Rain

Slowly the rain
Is falling down my window pane
And like my tears "Drip drop, Drip drop"
They just won't stop
(It) reminds me of the day
When you left me and went away
Down came the rain,
And I was drowning in pain

So let it rain, let it pour
Let it thunder, and let it roar!

I don't care
What the future forecast may be
Because it doesn't make a difference,
If you're not here with me
There will never be sunny weath
If we are not together
There's a thunderstorm alert
Inside where it hurts

So let it rain, let it pour
Let it thunder, and let it roar!

Until you come back to me,
Let it rain!
Until you come back to me,
Let it pour!
Until you come back to me,
Let it thunder
Until you come back to me,
Let it roar!

an arc of light
on the woman's broad brow —
all that jazz

hot sunshine —
the percussionist turning away

clarinet's melody —
the smell of cut grass
in the city park

sweltering —
I long for rain clouds
to cool the musician

on the plank stage
his bass strings vibrating summer stillness

hot evening of jazz
the stillness of hillslope poplars

rain to go

On Tuesday, January 28, 1997 NCA&T held the Eleventh Commemorative Memorial Program honoring the late Dr. Ronald E. McNair. Dr. McNair was born October 21, 1950 in Lake City, South Carolina. After graduating from Carver High School he studied here at A&T where he received his BS degree in Physics. He then received his doctorate of Philosophy in Physics from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. In 1978 he was selected by NASA as an astronaut candidate. His first flight as a Mission Specialist was February 3, 1984. Sadly, Dr. Ronald E. McNair's life ended January 28, 1986 when the Space Shuttle Challenger exploded. NC A&T annually commemorates our fellow Aggie, Dr. Ronald E. McNair.

Chancellor Edward Fort and Cheryl McNair, wife of Ron McNair.

Students, administrators, and guest speakers gather in McNair auditorium to pay honor to former astronaut and lifetime Aggie, Ronald McNair.

Quantae Durante, president of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, with a wreath in McNair's honor.

"As we assemble here today, we are grateful . . . that the Creator provided this University and the world with an opportunity to be part of the magnificence that he represented during his stay here on earth." — Chancellor Edward Fort.

UNIQUE SOPHISTICATE

Miss Collegiate African American, Jaye Princess Watkins, graced our campus with her presence during her tour of historically black colleges and universities throughout the country. Several organizations helped to make this occasion a success. The Gospel Choir welcomed Miss Watkins with their spiritual voices. The ladies of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority presented her with a gift. Senior class president Timiko Jones also paid a musical tribute to the queen. Later, the Christian step team stepped before the queen in honor of Jesus. Afterwards, Miss Watkins performed the talent that helped her win the title of Miss Collegiate African American. The queen then remarked on how welcome she felt during her stay at A&T. She said that it was one of the most wonderful campuses she'd visited during her tour, and that the atmosphere was like one of a big, loving family. The Student Government Association sponsored the event.

BLOOD DRIVE '97

Due to its demand, the American Red Cross collects and tests thousands of pints of blood each year.

To test for low iron a simple prick of the ear is all it takes.

NCA&T Aggies support the Red Cross by donating blood.

One pint of blood is collected and hopefully used to aid in saving someones life.

I've been doing this for years.

See, it really doesn't hurt at all.

Golden Key National Honor Society Induction

Recognizing students for scholastic achievement and excellence.

Chapter officers, honorees, and the guest speaker await the announcements of the scholarship recipients.

Golden Key National Honor Society held its spring 1997 induction on Monday, February 17 at 6:30pm in the Memorial Union Ballroom. That night, many Aggies were inducted. Two scholarships were also awarded. Angela Willis, junior accounting major, and Andre Taylor, senior accounting major were the proud recipients of the award.

"What is Wisdom" — Speaker of the occasion was Mrs. Elaine Harigan.

Dr. Robert Howard, advisor for Golden Key.

Many students were inducted this year, and many friends and relatives came to congratulate and support the new inductees.

TEACHING FOR AMERICA

The purpose of the Teaching Fellows Program is to encourage students to enter the teaching profession. The Fellows are awarded scholarships in the amount of $5,000 per year, and agree to teach in a North Carolina public school for four years or in a low performance area public school for three years.

This school year, the Fellows plan to visit the University of Virginia (Charlottesville, VA), the Discovery Place (Charlotte, NC), and the President elect's inauguration (Washington, DC). Also, select Teaching Fellows will have the opportunity to teach abroad in Germany.

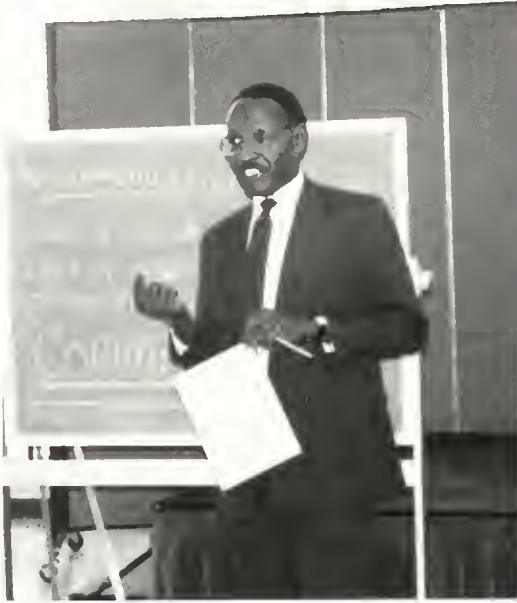

Fourteen institutions participate in the Teaching Fellows program. However, North Carolina A&T State University and North Carolina Central University are the only historically Black Universities in the program.

The A&T Teaching Fellows are Glenn Anderson, Helen Johnson, Latoya Smith, Stacey Spencer, and Tomica Wright, in their first year; Connell Cunningham, Jr., Jillian Davis, Tamara Gadson, Karen Harris, Jacqueline Koonce, Eugenia Oates, Traci Poole, Adrienne Scott, Christopher Shelton, and Dianna Whitaker in their second year; Leressa Brown, Melody Chalmers, Freda Davis, Corey King, Ryan Lashley, Teresa Robinson, and Sanchia Spoons in their third year; and Jamila Eagles, Sherelle Harris, Stephanie Hunter, Gregory Lanier, Cherita Mayo, Philippa Rhodes, Nicole Strayhorn, and Shantrel Walker in their fourth year.

Dr. Josephine Luck is the director of the Teaching Fellows program.

DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY, INC. ALPHA MU CHAPTER

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is a public service organization whose purpose is to provide service programs to promote human welfare. A sisterhood of approximately 185,000 predominantly Black college-trained women, the sorority has over 900 graduate and undergraduate chapters nationwide and internationally.

At the inception of Delta Sigma Theta in 1913 at Howard University, the 22 founders envisioned an organization pledged to serious endeavor and community service. These goals are realized through the sorority's major programmatic thrust; economic development, educational development, political awareness and involvement, physical and mental health, international awareness and involvement, and the arts and letters. The Alpha Mu Chapter was chartered at A&T College on February 13, 1932.

ALMA MATER

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., a monument indeed.
Around thy base with grateful hearts behold thy students, kneel.
We bless the power that gave thee birth to help us in our need,
We'll ever strive while here on earth all loyalty to yield.

REFRAIN

With joy, with joy, dear A. and T., thy students turn from thee.
To spread thy trophies year by year from Dare to Cherokee.

II

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., the signet thou shalt be
Set by our great old commonwealth, proud boaster of the free;
She'd have the record of her worth on granite not inscribed—
Nay, let the children of her birth proclaim it by their lives.

III

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., henceforth our aim shall be,
By precepts wise and deeds more sure to bless the State through thee;
The arts of industry to wield against an idle foe,
A harvest rich from ripened fields of what thy students sow.
